

PLANNING FILM SERIES

Tuesday
4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

EDWARD J. BLOUSTEIN
SCHOOL OF PLANNING
AND PUBLIC POLICY
(Civic Square), Room 369

Week 1—September 15 Robert W. Burchell, Tony Nelessen

Suburbs: Arcadia for Everyone

Architect Robert A.M. Stern's famous CD of the early garden suburbs of the United States: Llewellyn Park/Radburn, New Jersey; worker housing in Pullman, Illinois

Week 2—September 22 Robert W. Burchell, Stuart Meck

Endangered: Biodiversity and Economic Development

Lawyer Arthur Miller's round table on endangered species versus property development

Week 3—September 29 Robert W. Burchell

Housing America: Demographics and Development

McNeill Lehrer NewsHour report on sprawl, affordable housing, urban renewal, and co-housing

Week 4—October 6 Robert W. Burchell, Tony Nelessen

Neotraditionalism and New Urbanism: International Contexts

Andrés Duany and Elizabeth Plater-Zyberk, and others, talk about basic concepts in Seaside, Florida; Poundbury (Dorset, England); McKenzie Towne (Calgary, Canada)

Week 5—October 13 Robert W. Burchell

The Collected Works of Jane Jacobs: The Death and Life of Great American Cities; The Economy of Cities; Cities and the Wealth of Nations; The Nature of Economies

Jane Jacobs shares her insights into urban planning in the context of the progression of her four famous books

Week 6—October 20 Robert W. Burchell, Tony Nelessen

The Garden and the Grid

Architect Robert A.M. Stern's CD of sublime to disastrous experiments in city building

PLANNING FILM SERIES

Tuesday
4:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.

EDWARD J. BLOUSTEIN
SCHOOL OF PLANNING
AND PUBLIC POLICY
(Civic Square), Room 369

- Week 7—October 27 Robert W. Burchell, Stuart Meck
Private Property versus the Public Trust
Lawyer Arthur Miller's round table on private property rights versus public land preservation efforts
- Week 8—November 3 Robert W. Burchell, Roland Anglin
The Lost City of New Orleans: A Case Study
A BBC broadcast on why the city flooded and the degree to which it should be rebuilt
- Week 9—November 10 Robert W. Burchell, David Listokin
7 World Trade Center (New York City) / 1 Canada Square (London)
International financial centers after 9/11: avoiding risk yet making a statement
- Week 10—November 17 Robert W. Burchell, Tony Nelesen
Pritzker Architecture Prize-winning Architects on Urban Design
Gehry, Johnson, Piano, Legorreta, Herzog
- Week 11—November 24 Robert W. Burchell, Michael Lahr
Explaining Globalization: A Worldview on a Shrinking World and an Expanding Economy
McNeill Lehrer NewsHour report
- Week 12—December 1 Robert W. Burchell, Michael Lahr
Economic Development: A Global Challenge
Multiple means of measuring the economic progress of a country or region