

RUTGERS DAY

Experience New Jersey's State University

Bursting with a lively mix of music, dance, contests, storytelling, lectures, demonstrations, and more, Rutgers Day celebrates a great university and a great state. With more than 350 free activities and programs on the Busch, College Avenue, and Cook/Douglass campuses in New Brunswick and Piscataway, Rutgers Day is on Saturday, April 25, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Bring your family and friends for a day of discovery, and stop by events sponsored by the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy.

Busch Campus

10 a.m. – 4 p.m.

Solutions at Work: Discover the Heldrich Center

Busch Campus Center, World of Work, International Lounge

Meet with staff from Rutgers' John J. Heldrich Center for Workforce Development and learn about the center's pioneering research. A wide array of publications—including reports, brochures, posters, resource guides, and informational postcards—are available free of charge. You can also get information about the meeting spaces and amenities offered by the center's downtown Raritan River Conference Center. Cosponsored with Heldrich Center for Workforce Development

11 a.m. (60-minute session)

Are You Up to the Job?: Skills that Work in New Jersey

Busch Campus Center, World of Work, Multipurpose Room B

Discover the six major workforce trends driving New Jersey business and learn whether you have the workplace skills the state's employers demand most. A presentation and a Q&A session provide valuable insight into the current job market. Cosponsored with Heldrich Center for Workforce Development

1 p.m. (60-minute session)

Autism and Work: New Insights and Opportunity

Busch Campus Center, World of Work, Multipurpose Room B

April is Autism Awareness Month! Learn about new advances to help those with autism spectrum disorders succeed in the workplace. Experts from Rutgers' John J. Heldrich Center for Workforce Development and Autism New Jersey are on hand to answer questions and present the latest insights. Cosponsored with Heldrich Center for Workforce Development

College Avenue Campus

10 a.m.; 12 p.m.; 2 p.m.; 3 p.m.

(45-minute sessions)

Googling for Good: Community Action in the Internet Age

Voorhees Mall Area, Scott Hall, Room 123

Learn how K-12 students and community organizations across New Jersey are using the internet, cell phones, Google Maps, and other telecommunications technologies to improve their communities, from preserving the environment to promoting healthy lifestyles. Cosponsored with Center for Government Services

11 a.m.; 1 p.m.; 3 p.m.

(45-minute presentations)

Cities of the Future: New Urbanism in New Jersey

Voorhees Mall Area, Scott Hall, Room 123

Visit the city of the future, as envisioned by Rutgers' urban planners. This multimedia presentation reveals new urban design from Helsinki to Jersey City. Learn why more and more people are rediscovering the convenience of city living. And see how urban planners are dreaming up new ways to improve walkability, transportation, and other amenities of the urban renaissance.

11 a.m.; 2 p.m. (60-minute tours)

What's "New" in New Brunswick?

Old Queens Area, Departs from front steps of Kirkpatrick Chapel

Explore the City of New Brunswick as it continues its extraordinary renaissance. Join a walking tour between Old Queens and Civic Square, viewing recent additions to the city's skyline and learning about future development. You can also hear about innovative transportation solutions to keep New Brunswick moving.

Cook/Douglass Campus

11 a.m.; 2 p.m. (30-minute sessions)

Nature in Your Neighborhood

Passion Puddle Area, Lipman Drive

Uncover nature's wonders in your own neighborhood. Children (and adults) learn about the relationships between the man-made and natural environments through fun, hands-on activities. The sessions are based on Rutgers' Nurture through Nature educational enrichment program.

For more information

visit rutgersday.rutgers.edu