The Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy will honor the memory of our special colleague, friend, and mentor, Donald Krueckeberg, on April 20. We invite you to join us to remember him and celebrate his life.

We also invite you to join us for a reception afterwards.

PROFESSOR KRUECKEBERG

Born in Mishawaka, Indiana, on August 31, 1938, Professor Krueckeberg left a notable legacy in his work, service, and family. As Professor and Associate Dean for Master's and Professional Programs at the Edward J. Bloustein School of Planning and Public Policy at Rutgers, the State University of New Jersey, Dr. Krueckeberg edited academic journals, served as President of the Association of Collegiate Schools of Planning, was elected to the College of Fellows of the American Institute of Certified Planners and authored texts considered path-breaking in their fields.

We will remember Don as the bow-tied, bearded, meticulous, smiling professional upholder of academic, administrative and ethical standards; a passionate lover of cities and city pleasures who in his last years adored living a five-minute walk from work; a skillful skier, sailor and yachting commodore; and a quiet but steely moral guide to life in all its ups and downs.
